“Come to the Quiet” Lenten Retreat Day – March 2nd - 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Participants will find this six-hour respite both relaxing and spiritually refreshing. Special Scripture suggestions and reflections will be provided to help participants enter more fully into the Easter mysteries.

Offering: $25.00 (Includes lunch) Register by: February 28th

Evening Healing Prayer Service – Sunday, March 7th – 7 p.m.

With The Rev. Peter Ostrander presiding, this evening healing prayer service will include a time of communal praise and worship, prayer, and a short teaching. There will also be an opportunity for individual healing prayer following standard Christian patterns of prayer, laying-on-of hands, and anointing in a way that is respectful of various Church traditions and personal boundaries. All are welcome!

March 13th - 9 am – 3 pm

Easter Bread Making Retreat Day – Leaders – Mary Kay Kolat & Donna Koller

A meaningful retreat day to learn and experience the art of Easter bread making intermingled with opportunities to quietly reflect and ponder its parallels to the life, death and resurrection events of Easter. Come share this experience with friends/family—make a new tradition. Mary Kay Kolat will teach/guide the bread making; Donna Koller will guide the Easter reflections.

Program Offering: $30.00 (Includes lunch & all ingredients)

Registration Deadline: March 7th
